

MLAG 2012 Pre-Gathering Workshops

MLAG is pleased to present three Pre-Gathering workshops. Though the Gathering proper does not begin until Wednesday, these Pre-MLAG workshops will provide some wonderful options for early arrivals. Karen Daniels (beginners), Les Gustafson-Zook (intermediate) and Will Smith (intermediate/advanced) will each present nine hours of small group instruction on Tuesday and Wednesday. The workshops will cost $100 per person, payable to the instructor. You will be not be able to register on-line for these workshops but will have to use the form below. Please send your check (remember, made out to the instructor) and registration form to MLAG, c/o Coleen Walters, 12228 Hollowell Church Road, Greencastle, PA 17225. We will be limiting the maximum number of students in each workshop to twenty so, if you're considering taking one of these workshops, you should register as soon as you can.

The workshops will be conducted in three 3-hour sessions beginning at 9 am on Tuesday, June 19, locations to be determined at this point. Of course, the campground will be open but no support is available for meals or snacks until Wednesday evening. In the past, workshop attendees have made their own arrangements to go out for meals or to prepare something in the campground. MLAG will not assist with these arrangements; however, we will provide a listing of local restaurants.

These workshops provide a great opportunity for some hands-on training with three of the best autoharp players and teachers in the world. For at least the next few years there will be a Patsy Tressler Memorial Award. A random drawing from the names of all Pre-Gathering participants will be made on Wednesday night and one lucky individual will be given a check to cover the cost of the class.
